Leisure Line online at www.stpetersmo.net/classes • REVISED 1-13-21

Learn to Skate course fees may vary according to the number of classes offered.

8 Week Semester

$109 Passholder • $119 General Public

9 Week Semester:

$124 Passholder • $134 General Public

$10 discount if you register up to (2) days in advance

No Classes January 30 and April 3

At this time, Tot through Delta students will be given 10 free punches that they can use to register for public ice skating sessions. To register for a public session, visit www.stpetersmo.net/rec-connect and use Flex Registration.

Our instructors will teach you skills developed by the Ice Sports Industry (ISI), a leading national ice industry trade association. You can learn to skate or improve your skills. Students will also have the opportunity to perform during Rec-Plex ice shows. We have classes for all ages and a variety of skill levels. Learn to Skate classes are 40 minutes in length (Homeschool, Matinee, and advanced figure skating classes are 30 minutes in length). We'll provide skates if you need them. Classes meet at the Rec-Plex North Ice Arena, unless your class description says otherwise.

ISI membership is required for Pre-Alpha and above Ice Skating classes at the St. Peters Rec-Plex.

Membership is valid September 1, 2020 - August 31,

2021. Multi-year memberships or single year memberships may also be purchased through the ISI website at discounted rates at skateisi.org. If you have registered online through ISI please contact Leslie Deason at Ldeason@stpetersmo.net or a registration specialist to waive your Rec-Plex annual $17 ISI membership fee.

Tot and Me (Ages 3-5):

Kids 3 to 5 years can bring a guardian (16+) to come learn to skate with them. Introduction to the ice in a fun, game oriented environment. Forward skating and stopping skills are introduced. This class is designed for skaters new to skating. Guardians must be at least 16 years old and be able to skate independently with confidence. Skates will be provided for guardians if needed. Helmet and gloves highly recommended but not required.
